

MR ANDY LANE, MASTER

WORSHIPFUL COMPANY OF GLAZIERS & PAINTERS OF GLASS

Andy Lane joined the Livery in 1977 and was a Steward and later chairman of the Craft & Competitions Committee before eventually becoming Upper Warden. He currently works with his wife Caroline at a media auditing consultancy which they jointly founded. Caroline has had considerable experience in the media field at a senior level. Andy also runs a small corporate finance company, Aurora M&A Solutions.

Andy also had a career in management. He graduated from Balliol College, Oxford with an MA in engineering science. After completing graduate training at Ford of Europe he took an MBA at Harvard. He then developed organisation-line experience at Ford of Europe, ADT and TI Group, and management consultancy experience at Accenture and Ernst & Young. He also has small company experience having, amongst others, run packaging and double-glazing businesses.
